2011 RECRUITMENT PLAN FOR FRANCE

On April 15 next, Renault will be presenting its 2011 recruitment plan for France to the Central Works Council.

For France, Renault plans to hire 1,510 recruits on permanent contracts, of whom more than one-third in sales.

A total 330 and 333 new recruits will be hired for the engineering and production sectors respectively. The remainder will be in support functions.

Renault will take this opportunity to restate its historic commitment to work/study training. The objective is to have 4% of work/study trainees in the company workforce at end-December 2011, i.e. a total of 2,155 people.
