

PRESS RELEASE

ARNAUD BELLONI JOINS GROUPE RENAULT

Boulogne-Billancourt, September 15th, 2020 – Groupe Renault today announces that Arnaud Belloni will join the Group starting November 15th, 2020. He will reinforce the Group's Sales & Marketing teams, reporting to Luca de Meo, Chief Executive Officer.

Arnaud Belloni, 53, has been Senior Vice President Global Marketing, Communication and Sport at Citroën since 2015. He initiated the brand's new positioning and launched the latest cars such as the C3 and C5 Aircross. He has solid experience in the automotive sector in France and internationally, having worked for several manufacturers.

Arnaud Belloni started his career in the automotive industry in 1993 within the marketing teams of Renault. In 1999, he took charge of the product and then marketing department of the Skoda brand in France. He joined Fiat in 2004, where he led Brand Marketing Communication for Fiat, Alfa Romeo and Lancia brands in France and then became France Country Manager for Lancia. In 2011, he joins the Fiat Chrysler Automobiles Group teams in Shanghai as Vice-President Marketing for the Asia Pacific region (8 brands, 12 countries).

Arnaud Belloni is a graduate of the Compiègne Business School in France and holds a postgraduate degree in communication from Toulouse Business School.
