

KARHOO WINS EUROPEAN STARTUP GOLD PRIZE FOR MOBILITY

Boulogne Billancourt, April 11st 2019 – Karhoo, the marketplace dedicated to urban mobility that connects fleets and customers worldwide - won the prestigious European Startup Gold Prize for mobility during an awards ceremony in Brussels. The young company was judged to be the breakthrough innovation with the most potential to shape the mobility landscape in Europe and around the world.

Supported by the Groupe Renault since 2017, Karhoo which has 1.8 million vehicles across six continents on its platform, brings together taxi and private hire car companies on a single integrated reservation hub, allowing final users to reserve, modify, monitor and pay their trips, and benefit from a very wide choice of vehicle fleets and services.

This approach comes under Groupe Renault's ambition to develop a range of new mobility services for all - through simple, attractive and personalized solutions.

About Groupe Renault

Groupe Renault has manufactured cars since 1898. Today it is an international multi-brand group, selling close to 3.9 million vehicles in 134 countries in 2018, with 36 manufacturing sites, 12,700 points of sales and employing more than 180,000 people. To address the major technological challenges of the future, while continuing to pursue its profitable growth strategy, Groupe Renault is focusing on international expansion. To this end, it is drawing on the synergies of its five brands (Renault, Dacia, Renault Samsung Motors, Alpine and LADA), electric vehicles, and its unique alliance with Nissan and Mitsubishi Motors. With a 100% Renault owned team committed to the Formula 1 World Championship since 2016, the brand is involved in motorsports, a real vector for innovation and awareness.
