RENAULT ANNOUNCES AN INVESTMENT OF 300 MILLION EUROS IN THE CLÉON PLANT

During an audition of the Economic Commission of the French Senate, Carlos Tavares, COO of Renault, announced an investment at mid-term of 300 million euros in the Cléon plant.

Cléon is one of the main plants of Renault in the production of engines and gearboxes. This investment will also be used for the electric motor that will equip Renault Z.E. cars.

This investment confirms the will of Renault to invest in the industrial future of France.
