

SALES RESULTS - SEPTEMBER 2013

- Renault group PC + LCV market share increased 2.8 points to 28.6% in September, making it the leader in the PC + LCV market.
- PC market share rose 3.3 points to 26.7% (+19.3% in a market up 3.4%). LCV market share was up 1.2 points to 38.2%, an increase on the strong month of September 2012.
- The Open Days operations (OPO) from September 12 to 16 confirmed the success of the range renewal and strengthened the order book.
- Twingo, New Clio, Captur and Scénic led their respective segments, all four ranking in the top five best-selling vehicles in France.

Renault brand

- The Renault brand's PC market share rose 3.1 points to 23.1%. Registrations were up 19.3% in a market that increased 3.4%.
- In September and for the year through end-September, New Clio was the best-selling passenger car. In September, six months after launch, Captur took the number-three spot in the PC market.
- Renault increased its LCV market share 0.6 points to 37.1%. The Renault brand alone is the clear brand leader and even ranks ahead of all the other groups. Over one in three LCVs sold in France is a Renault brand model.
- Four Renault brand vehicles ranked in the top four best-selling LCVs in France in September: Kangoo, Clio Société, Trafic and Master.
- Renault remained the leader in the electric vehicle market, for PCs and LCVs alike. Nearly 4,500 ZOE's had already been registered at end-September.

Dacia brand

- Dacia brand PC sales rose 11.1%, driven by the success of New Sandero.
- Dacia confirmed its number-five ranking in the French PC + LCV market for the year to end-September.

Commenting, Bernard Cambier, Senior Vice President, Market Area France, said: “We had a very good month in September both in registrations and order taking. Our order book was up 20% on end-September 2012, a result of the strong commitment of our network, which obtained excellent results with the Open Day events in September. Our new models are going from success to success, with four Renault vehicles ranking in the top five in terms of registrations.”
