SALES RESULTS FRANCE - SEPTEMBER 2012

- In a market that remained very low, contracting 17.3%, Renault group PC + LCV sales fell 29.1%. Renault took a 25.8% share of the market.
- In a PC market that fell 18.3%, Renault brand sales were down 35.8% on September 2011, which was a very strong month. The brand took a 20.0% share of the market, reflecting a positive reorientation compared with results since the start of the year.
- The Renault brand scored a 36.5% share of the LCV market, making it by far the leading brand and even outperforming all Groups.

Renault PC

- Twingo and Mégane continue to lead their respective segments.
- New Clio received an excellent welcome in the network and at the Paris Motor Show.

Dacia PC

- In a market down 18.3%, the Dacia brand took a 3.3% share, up 0.2 points.

Commenting, Bernard Cambier, Senior Vice President, Market Area France, said:

“My main preoccupation remains the automotive market in general. We are currently forecasting at best a 13% decrease on 2011. At Group level, we recently launched a new product offensive at the Paris Motor Show with New Clio and ZOE for Renault and the renewal of the Dacia range with New Logan, New Sandero, Dokker and Dokker Van.”
